

Hi! This is Amreena. I and my husband, we got our Australian PR on the 19th of April 2012. I got the PR in a period of 50 days. It would not have been possible without the expert guidance from Next World Immigration Services at New Delhi. I read the reviews of Next world Immigration services over the internet and contacted them. Once I spoke to them I had no doubts about letting them handle my case. I had many queries prior to applying and I always got answers very promptly. They are highly knowledgeable and experienced people. I also found them to be very cooperative. Their focus is primarily on the quality and they take care of each and every aspect without missing out on any detail.

I visited the office only twice and this is one of the biggest advantages of letting Next World Immigration services handle your case. All I had to do was only mail the documents, rest were taken care at their end. The services and guidance provided were immeasurable. I sincerely appreciate their patience hearing to each and every query of mine. I was doubtful about getting state sponsorship from NSW however Next World Immigration services assured me of the chances of my getting the sponsorship and yes I did get it.

I take this opportunity to thank the team at Next world immigration services New Delhi for the help and guidance. Hats off to their excellent documentation skills.

I wish them all the best for their future cases and to all those reading this, I would highly recommend Next World immigration services to you.

Regards

Amreena
